2. CHARACTERISTIC SPIRIT AND GENERAL OBJECTIVES OF THE SCHOOL

Holy Family B.N.S. is a Catholic all boys primary school with a Catholic ethos. The Bishop of Kildare & Leighlin is the Patron of this school.

'Catholic schools are communities which are open, welcoming and inclusive. Therefore, Catholic schools may include children who adhere to other religions or other stances for living. While mindful of their duty to educate in the distinctive beliefs, values, and practices of the Catholic community, teachers will bear witness to an attitude of respect for and appreciation of all'.

'The Catholic Preschool & Primary Religious Education Curriculum p15'

Catholic Ethos' in the context of a Catholic primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Roman Catholic Church, which aims at promoting:

- the full and harmonious development of all aspects of the person of the pupil, including the intellectual, physical, cultural, moral and spiritual aspects; and
- a living relationship with God and with other people; and
- a philosophy of life inspired by belief in God and in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus; and the formation of the pupils in the Catholic faith,
- and which school provides religious education for the pupils in accordance with the doctrines, practices and traditions of the Roman Catholic Church, and/or such ethos and/or characteristic spirit as may be determined or interpreted from time to time by the Irish Episcopal Conference.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of Holy Family B.N.S. shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.

Holy Family Boys National School, Askea, Carlow is a Catholic, all boys, primary school under the patronage of the Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin. The policies, practices and attitudes of the school are inspired by values of the Christian Gospel.

Holy Family Boys National School welcomes those of all religions and none who adhere to and respect our school ethos. The school recognises the dignity and value of each person. This is reflected in the organisation of the school. The school collaborates with the home in order to lead young people to the fullness of their potential.

Ours is a school where teachers are sensitive to the needs and circumstances of each pupil. We are a centre of excellence where professional standards are maintained and where pupils learn in a safe and happy environment. Achievement appropriate to the individual is valued and promoted by class and support teachers.

Prayer is a regular feature of the school day. Such prayer uses the resources provided by Catholic tradition and practice while seeking to be inclusive in its expression. The celebration of the Christian Liturgical Seasons is a part of the rhythm of the school year. Children are offered the opportunity to participate in these celebrations. Catholic pupils are prepared for the reception of the sacrament of First Confession, First Communion and Confirmation, in accordance with arrangements in the diocese. This occurs in partnership with the family and the parish.

The school in its code of good behaviour and discipline reflects the Christian values of forgiveness, reconciliation, new beginnings, hope, charity, tolerance, and respect for self and others.

We hope that each boy leaving school will have received a broad moral, intellectual and social education appropriate to his age and ability, and that he will have been given a strong sense of self-esteem, of belonging and responsibility to his community, his culture, his environment, his country and the wider European and World communities.
